Appealing to the eye and the body

Cumberland Handwork Collection
Sloane Seating
 Designed by Jeffrey Botwin of Herringbone Design

Sloane lounge seating captures the eye with an intriguing blend of the casual and the sophisticated. Sloane's appeal derives from a balance of relaxed style and understated luxury characteristic of the West Coast. Its angular, tufted back cushion exemplifies timeless tailoring while exquisite materials speak to the allure of surrounding oneself with fine objects. As to comfort, Sloane satisfies, with ample width, deep cushioning, and generous proportions.

Clean lines and angular shapes embody timeless styling

Fine materials and craftsmanship offer understated luxury

On thick fabric/leather, an elegant button-only cushion pattern will be used

Specifications

Fully upholstered lounge chair and 2- or 3-seat sofa with fixed, tufted cushions and a wood base. Very thick or unusual fabrics and leathers cannot be tufted as shown. In these cases, they will just have buttons. The base is constructed of maple solids with double dowels and corner-blocked front legs and rails. Legs have nylon glides. The seat is 4"-thick multi-density polyurethane foam on webbing that is stretched over a hardwood plywood frame. Catalyzed lacquer finish in all Cumberland Maple finishes. Also available with down-wrapped seat cushions.

Options

Upholstery: Com/Col, Fabric and Elmo Leather program
